

United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina

Deric Lostutter
Plaintiff

Case no: 16CV1098

V.
Thomas Olsen, Alexandria
Goddard, Michelle McKee
Defendants

Plaintiff's Objection to Defendant's motion for extension of Time.

NOW COME THE PLAINTIFF, appearing pro-se, and objects to the Defendant's motion for Extension of Time for the following reasons:

- 1) Plaintiff served Defendants, Thomas Olsen + Michelle McKee, in accordance with North Carolina rules of procedure set 8th 2016. (Docket entry 6)
- 2) Remaining Defendant Alexandria Goddard has been in possession of complaint since at least Sep 7th 2016, publishing it online via her twitter page, "primedidit", and avoids service. (see Plaintiff's motion for summary judgement exhibit A)

3) It is not the responsibility of the court to allow more time based on admission to the Federal Bar. Defendants had a responsibility to seek appropriately accredited counsel and reply to a complaint properly served within the time period allotted by the honorable Court.

4) Rule 56(a) states that Defendants may not file affidavits in bad faith to delay trial, which seems to be the goal of the 3 defendants who have had possession of the complaint since the beginning of September.

5) Mr. Gibson erroneously states he did not have access to E.C.F. when all documents are public records and have been public since filing. No special privilege is required to view or file documentation in person or on E.C.F./Pacer.

6) Mr. Gibson has been aware of the allegations against his clients since around mid June-July 2016 when this matter was filed in Superior Court in Forsyth County in 2016, including a previous version of this complaint.

Wherefore, Plaintiff moves the court to deny Defendants motion to extend time pursuant to rule 56 (g) and issue a summary judgement to the Plaintiff in favor of the Plaintiff.

This the 3rd day of October 2016

Respectfully Submitted
